It's all captured in bronze on Cheraw's Town Green, the trademark bulging cheeks, closed eyes and bent trumpet. Come see Dizzy as he was in life - larger than life! Explore the roots of the founder of modern jazz or "bebop," the most American of all music forms.

Visit the Gillespie Home Site Park with its eclectic stainless steel benches, modern sculpture and Historic Marker. Follow the actual notes to "Salt Peanuts" on the steel fence. Pick up a brochure on sites associated with Gillespie's life in Cheraw at the Cheraw Chamber of Commerce or celebrate Dizzy's birthday with us at the South Carolina Jazz Festival the third weekend in October. Join the band of jazz fans bebopping to Cheraw!

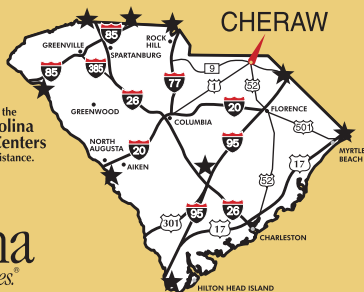

Cheraw is a beautiful, colonial town in Northeastern South Carolina, less than 45 minutes from I-95.
